

[HOLIDAY BUYERS' GUIDE]

the season's best

A PERSONAL BOOKING

Snapshots of memorable moments are artistically arranged and custom designed to tell a personal history or celebrate a particular milestone in what Lauren Clayton calls heirloom books. Her company, Studio 162, offers several compilations, ranging from newsletters to short biographies. In-depth and bound narratives start at $3,000. (www.studio162.com)

ROYAL TRAVELS

The formula for Clive Christian Perfumes dates back to 1872, but its classic appeal is alluringly modern, offering scents exotic and rare in three popular fragrances: No. 1, the world's most expensive perfume; 1872; and X. The perfumer has recently packaged them in a carry-all set called the Traveller. Individually, the crystal-encased fragrances range in cost from $185 to $50,000. The set of three 50 ml eau de parfum spray bottles retails for $258.

THE GREATEST GIFT

A legend is honored in a tribute as illustrious as his personality and accomplishments. GOAT: A Tribute to Muhammad Ali (Taschen; $10,000) weighs 75 pounds, measures 20"x 20", and is packed with contributions from hundreds of writers and photographers. Intimate stories and more than 3,000 photos in 792 pages cover six decades of Ali's life and career. Collector's edition is $3,000; premium edition ranges from $7,000-$10,000.

